

Shadrack Nii Yarboi Yartey

Communication Officer (CUTS International, Accra)

Profile

Shadrack Nii Yarboi Yartey is currently the Communication and Programmes Officer at CUTS International, Accra; his role involves the production and issuance of communications to the organization's multi stakeholders as well as providing IT related support. He is also responsible for liaising with the media to enhance the visibility and impact of CUTS in the Ghanaian media landscape. He also facilitates the organization of all events and capacity-building workshop. He has immense knowledge of traditional and new media channels and manages CUTS Accra's website and social media content to expand communications and traffic.

Shadrack holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication Studies (with specialization in Journalism) from the Ghana Institute of Journalism (GIJ). Shadrack has many years of experience as a communication and media specialist working for a number of donor-funded programmes, organizations and media houses. He is a member of the Ghana Journalist Association (GJA), Ghana

With his dynamism and dexterity in oral and written communication, Shadrack has written a number of published articles. He is also adroit in the use of Graphic Design, MailChimp, photo, voice and video editing. Before joining CUTS Accra in January 2018, Shadrack worked as a Communication Officer at Ghana Revenue Authority in Accra.

Email: sny@cuts.org

Date of Joining: January 06, 2018

Nationality: Ghanaian

Languages: English-Fluent

- Ga –Mother tongue
- Akan-Fluent

Areas of Interest

Public and Media
Coordination, Consumer
Protection, Good
Governance &
Accountability

Qualification: Bachelor's Degree in Communication
Studies from Ghana
Institute of Journalism

Key Skills

- Excellent communicator
- Good organizational and time management skills
- Adroit in Information Communication Technologies